

Dizzy World

We remember that's when we stopped & fell asleep. I remember it's 1 of those; it's 1 of those few moments in life. . .

Where?

Where, it felt like; like an answer.

Ummm & it wasn't (♥)like; It wasn't like we saw a voice or like a burning bush or something like that. Like mercy. & Beyond sheer release. This other thought: a weird thought. This whole ordeal reminds us of a lonely worker, an outsider. You keep trying things. Juice. Bounce. Bathroom. Sleep. Your Account. Scroll. Type. Breath. The weird thing is in this awful full potential thing. Non of those things actually work. They are all like fake choices. YOU the PURE PLAYAZ™ (genuine 1969) don't have control (the room feels like its spinning, again?). An act of saving. Nothing works. Bizz-zarre. Made of hope. We hope to share it with you. Come home feeling crushed. #roped

Dizzy World

It was amazing: This person introduced me to that person. That person introduced me to that person. There is actually 2 or 3 people that want to fund our work?! Wait so your saying there is actually a market—place for this kind of work? So, so I want to be clear. The world of these kind of works is a mini 1. Their are people; Their are investors who are looking for work that are doing something different. Looking for work that is meaningful in some way (Ad?).

Umm, & so I think a few of them came tonight & thought O.K. let's see what a full fledge version of this world would be. Umm & and we're just like thinking; it's like this generation has grown up – right?; different experiences.

Why can't we tell these stories with this room? Options appear. Please, stop. Drop your head into your lap (the room stops spinning, great!). Bringing you back to this space (any work could work, phew!). That dragon called Work. Floating in the nighttime sky 2 wards the moon. The sun is sin—king in the west. Will I see. . . 'round the bend, Ben? Voice Mails! Take care. The edges (creeping—in). Rain pours into the room. Deep Swallow. Long Walk. Deep Breath. Eat In. Hang OUT. Download Code. Then press '#'. The I.Q., birthdate, panic threshold, grip strength, lift strength, aging agility ability, & innumerable other qualities aren't codes. Just images using dusty beige & brown, pale blue^o warm earth tones. . .

Dizzy World

This affords the viewers the opportunity to extrapolate the strong & silent type.
