

Information about the Exhibition of Matthias Sohr

These are the opening hours:

3 December to 18 December 2016
and 13 January to 15 January 2017.

Every Friday and Saturday
from 13:00 to 18:00.

You can see the exhibition here:

ACUD gallery Berlin
Veteranenstraße 21
10119 Berlin

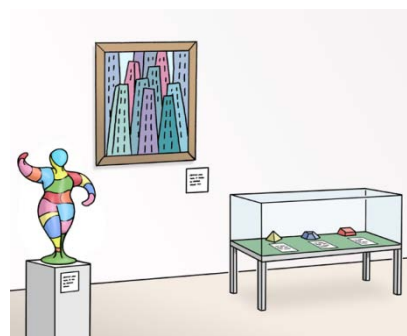

ACUD gallery is the name of the gallery.

A gallery is a space
where exhibitions are shown.

Matthias Sohr has thought about many topics for the exhibition.

For example, the exhibition is about:

- family and family ties
- the agency of people

In his exhibition he shows different sculptures.

Sculptures are figures.

For example made from plastic.

Or from metal.

Matthias Sohr also shows other things.

For example:

- A stair lift
- Or a wheelchair
- Or colourful boards on the wall

Matthias Sohr makes art.

He doesn't just show things.

He wants to show things differently than they normally are.
That's important to him.

Information about the artist

The name of the artist is Matthias Sohr.
He was born in 1980.
He is from Düsseldorf in Germany.
Matthias Sohr is a sculptor.
That means: He makes sculptures.
He has studied in various countries.
He has often shown his sculptures before.
This is his first exhibition in Berlin.

The exhibition is made accessible by the Reha Hilfe Jessen GmbH.

The text was translated by the AWO Büro Leichte Sprache.

Büro Leichte Sprache

The exhibition receives money from the Senate of Berlin.

Der Regierende Bürgermeister von Berlin
Senatskanzlei
Kulturelle Angelegenheiten

The exhibition is supported by:

BMW
Niederlassung Berlin

HEWI

REHA
mobil · Berlin

reha-hilfe GmbH
Barrierefreiheit · Mobilität

