

Gunia Nowik Gallery at Paris Internationale 2026
Teresa Gierzyńska & Sana Shahmuradova Tanska
October 20 – 24, 2026
VIP Preview: Monday, October 19
Paris Internationale
187–189 Quai de Valmy, Paris, France
Booth B1.01, 1st Floor, Tower Section

For the 12th edition of Paris Internationale, Gunia Nowik Gallery presents Polish photographer Teresa Gierzyńska (b. 1947) and Ukrainian painter Sana Shahmuradova Tanska (b. 1996). Bringing together two generations and cultural contexts, the presentation explores embodiment, identity, and the boundaries between personal and collective experience.

A pioneering figure in Polish feminist art, Gierzyńska presents works from her seminal series About Her (1976–1995), in which photography becomes a performative record of psychological and emotional states. Shahmuradova Tanska presents new paintings and painterly objects where mythology, memory, and lived experience converge in dreamlike compositions, exploring the body as a vessel of memory.

Together, the artists establish an intergenerational dialogue in which vulnerability becomes a form of agency and identity remains continually negotiated. Their distinct practices offer resonant perspectives on the complexities of embodied experience.

Founded in 2015 as an alternative to traditional art fairs, Paris Internationale brings together emerging and established galleries, fostering experimental practices and international exchange. Its 12th edition takes place at 187–189 Quai de Valmy, near Canal Saint-Martin in Paris.

Gunia Nowik Gallery welcomes visitors to Booth B1.01, on the first floor of the Tower Section.
